Leader Visits Russia to Strengthen Bilateral Relations

The Leader of the Revolution has embarked on a three-day visit to Russia aiming to strengthen bilateral relations between two peoples of Libya and the Russian Federation.

At a meeting on Thursday with Dr. Moatasem Al-Qthafi, the President of the Libyan National Security Council, who headed a top delegation to prepare for the Leader's visit, Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov said "the upcoming visit to Russia by Muammar al-Qaddafi will enhance the effectiveness of bilateral relations and impart to them stable dynamics in a long-term perspective."

Commenting on the talks held between the Libyan and Russian delegations, Lavrov said "The parties exchanged opinions on a number of questions of the joint agenda and on separate international and regional themes."

"The common stand in favor

Obama Seems to Win US's Tuesday Elections

Democrat Barack Obama holds clear leads in four reliably Republican states and is tied in two others as his campaign labours to remake America's political map with a landslide victory against John McCain on Tuesday, according to a new Associated Press-GfK poll.

The poll results, released on Wednesday, reflect Obama's massive campaign in states once seen as certain to back McCain.

The AP-GfK polls show

Obama winning among early voters, favoured on almost every issue, benefiting from the country's sour mood and widely viewed as the winning candidate by voters in eight crucial states -

Colorado, Florida, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

"If you believe in miracles,"
