

THE TRIPOLI POST

Israeli Extremist Ultra right Avigdor Lieberman, center, emerged third in Israeli elections along with Likud's Benjamin Netanyahu, left, and Tzipi Livni of Kadima, right, are competing as to who would lead the "troika of terrorism" against peace-loving, unarmed Palestinian people.

A New Troika of Terrorism in "Israel"

The world has sounded alarm over the rising power of extremist right in Israel. Hope for peace is no longer an option in the Middle East.

The Palestinians, Arabs and Muslims should now be prepared to face another group of war criminals who could commit unprecedented aggressions and crimes anywhere anytime.

An Hamas official, Fawzi Barhoum, called the election results a demonstration of Israeli support for an extremist government led by a "troika of terrorism." "This shows that the Zionist voters clearly start choosing the one who is most extreme in his speech, the one who wants war with the Palestinians," Barhoum told Al-Jazeera TV.

"This troika, this trio of
