

THE TRIPOLI POST

AU President the Leader Muammar Al-Qathafi, R, meets with King Abdullah of Saudi Arabia on the sidelines of the Arab summit in Doha on March 30. The meeting was hosted Qatar's ruler.

Al-Qathafi: Arab Peace Initiative Must Include Dismantling of Israeli Nukes, Return of Palestinian Refugees

The President of the African Union Muammar Gaddafi was honored on Monday by the Arab summit in Doha, Qatar as he was called on to deliver the concluding remarks of the 21st Arab ordinary summit. He thanked Qatar and welcomed the Arab heads of state to hold the 22nd Arab summit in Libya.

During his speech, Al-Qathafi demanded that the chairman of the summit be given authorizations as to oversee the implementation of the summit's resolutions and for the Secretary-general of the Arab League to be responsible to the chairman of the summit.

This is the first call for reforming the Arab League on practical basis and could very much meet strong support among Arabs.

Al-Qathafi implicitly raised the need for some sort of change in the leadership of the Arab League by saying that the General-Secretary of the Arab
