Libya, Ukraine Sign Nuclear Power, Military and Agriculture Cooperation Deals

Tripoli— Secretary of the General People's Committee Al-Baghdaoui Al-Mahmoudi announced on Tuesday that Libya had agreed to increase Libyan investments in Ukraine by establishing an oil refinery and gas stations in this Ukraine.

Speaking at a joint news conference with Ukraine Prime Minister Yulia Tymoshenko, he also said agriculture projects are to be undertaken in the Ukraine Republic.

A Libyan investment center is to be set up in Ukraine to oversee the expected rise of Libyan investments which will include oil, gas and agriculture projects. "The establishment of such center is an evidence that Libya intends to expand its investments in Ukraine,"

Israel Slams Washington on Illegal Settlements in West Bank

Israel defied a blunt US demand that it freeze all building in illegal West Bank Jewish settlements, saying Thursday it would press ahead with construction. It remains to see how Washington will do with such Israeli ingratitude.

This is in spite the fact that US Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton told Israel Wednesday that President Barack Obama wanted Israel to
