Libya, Turkey Cancel Visa Requirements, Vow for Stronger Cooperation

At the time when many major European embassies in Tripoli are unjustifiably treating Libyan visa seekers with contempt, disrespect and humiliation in spite of their huge economic interests in the country, Libya and Turkey decided on Tuesday to end immediately visa requirements between the two states.

Meanwhile, The Leader of the Revolution held talks with the Turkish Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan both on Tuesday and Wednesday during which bilateral relations and the developments of the Palestinian cause, peace and security in the
